JUDGE:

Request to take a Portrait Photograph
Your Office or St. Louis
Convenient Date

Photographer Robert J. Westrich, Jr. spoke to me at the Eighth Circuit Conference concerning an opportunity to take a complimentary portrait photograph of you either in your office or sometime when you are in St. Louis at a convenient date. The initial photograph would be given to you, and any additional photographs could be ordered by interested people. Mr. Westrich is interested in taking a "traditional portrait using the CIA seal in the background." He needs about 30 minutes to set up and another 15-20 minutes to take the photograph. Since you already have an official Agency photograph with the CIA seal, it would be inappropriate to have another done by someone in the private sector. Therefore I recommend that you meet with Mr. Westrich in St. Louis for a private photo session. If you agree, I will make the appropriate arrangements with him.

Mr. Westrich says that he has photographed all the Judges of the Eighth Circuit including Judge Lay and Judge McMillian and has been in business for 40 years. In addition, he does all the photography for the Circuit Court and Appellate meetings.

William M. Baker
Director of Public Affairs
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Baker:

As per our conversation at the Eighth Circuit Judicial Conference, it would indeed be a great honor for us to do a portrait of such a prominent St. Louisan as Director Webster.

Westrich Photography has been photographing prominent citizens, such as Chief Judge Donald P. Lay, Judge Theodore McMillian, and others, for over forty years.

If you could make arrangements for a date that we could do this, our time requirements would be one half hour set up time and approximately twenty minutes with the Director himself.

Thank you for your consideration. I am looking forward to seeing you in Washington.

Sincerely,

RJW
Robert J. Westrich, Jr.
